THE VINE is a student publication produced by members of the student body of Fort Wayne Bible College, 1025 West Rudisill Boulevard, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46807.

The close of another year . . . It hardly seems possible that just a few days ago the chapel echoed with the harmony of four hundred students singing "Wonderful Grace of Jesus" or the Student Union was filled with weary scholars relaxing from the pressures of the day. And now . . . only silence and emptiness.

. . . except for our memories. It was a good year filled with music and special get-togethers. It was a year of planning, learning, and growing in our relationships to the Lord and to others. It passed too quickly, and we were left only with our anticipations of another year. And then before we knew it, another year was here!

And in the beginning there were retreats and more retreats and more retreats. And there were meetings and more meetings and more meetings

It was a time for reacquaintances and fun as well as for planning and praying—all in preparation for the new year. To returning students it was a reunion and to the new students it was the greeting: Welcome to Fort Wayne Bible College.

Freshman: 1. a beginner; novice 2. a student in the ninth grade in high school, or one in the first year of college 3. a person in his first year at any enterprise.

—probationer

—frosh

—see amateur

And what a welcome was given to the freshmen. Room assignments were given, introductions to the different aspects of the college were made and tests were taken. It was a time of some frustration with some cases of homesickness and trying to adjust. But there was the excitement of meeting new people and the beginning of what would be some lasting friendships.

Dedication:

A Very Special Lady

She's energetic and delightful; she has a beautiful smile and a bubbling personality; she has a special love for her Lord and for people. If we had to use one word to describe her, it would be "enthusiastic." The very special lady of whom we are speaking is Mrs. Char Binkley.

Char graduated from Fort Wayne Bible College in 1965 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education and received her M.S. degree from Indiana University in Fort Wayne. She taught elementary school for six years in the Fort Wayne Community Schools and for one year in Dekalb County. In 1973 she joined the faculty here at Fort Wayne Bible College as professor of psychology and also began serving as Administrative Assistant to our College President, Dr. Timothy Warner.

She is now an important part of WBCL Radio, where she serves as Director of Women's Programming. She is the hostess of the daily program, "Spectrum for the Homemaker," a variety program featuring interviews, hints and tips, recipes, and inspirational thoughts. "Spectrum for the Homemaker" has proven a most popular program with the WBCL listeners, voted as the number one program during the last station survey. Char also is presently serving as banquet and conference speaker on topics relating to family life, personal relationships, and women's interests.

A member of several local organizations, Char has served as President of the Indiana Minister's Wives Association for two years, Vice-Chairman of the Fort Wayne Christian Business and Professional Women, and Secretary of the Fort Wayne Education Association. Char was selected as the 1972 Outstanding Educator of Fort Wayne. She has been listed in the 1968 and 1976 editions of Outstanding Young Women of America.

Char is the mother of two children, Angela and Andrew, and is the wife of Stephen Binkley, a Personal and Family Counselor at Markle Medical Center, Markle, Indiana. Char and her husband, Steve, present "Prescription for Family Harmony" seminars throughout the Midwest.

All of this is more than enough proof that Char Binkley is quite a lady. However, along with all her responsibilities as wife, mother, teacher, speaker, and Director of Women's Programming with WBCL, she also took time to give of herself as advisor for the Class of 1977. She served as advisor for them for two years. This would seem an insignificant position to some, but not to the seniors to whom she was a constant encouragement and delight. For her enthusiasm and self-giving, we dedicate this book to her . . . along with "her" class, who will most appreciate this particular volume of The Vine, the Senior Class of 1977.

Good Defense And Ball-handling Makes For An Exciting Season

The team hung on throughout the season.
Again they got a shot at the National title.

From the beginning to the end, the mighty Falcons fought hard on defense and tried to improve the offense.

Senior Skip-Day

On Thursday, April 28, at 5:30 A.M., approximately sixty seniors left FWBC enroute to Greenfield, Michigan, for what is known to all as Senior Skip Day. The seniors spent the day visiting the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. It was a chilly, windy day, but in spite of the somewhat gloomy weather, it turned out to be a great time of fun. The fellowship was great, and it was a day that the seniors will long remember.

We'll Remember Always . . . Graduation Day

It was a warm, sunny day . . . , a day of remembering for the class of 1977 . . . , and especially a day of challenges.

Rev. Robert C. Strubhar was the Baccalaureate speaker, sharing that "God's Clouds Have Silver Linings." His challenge to the seniors was for them to trust in the sovereignty of God in the most adverse of circumstances. The Chorale added to the challenge by ministering in song. Their selections were "And This Is Love" and "My Eternal King."

The Commencement speaker came to us from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois, where he is the chairman of the division of Philosophy of Religion. Dr. Norman Geisler also gave a challenge. The seniors received their long-awaited diplomas, and they joined in singing the Alma Mater for the last time as students.

Proud Parents Come From All

Around To Attend Commencement

Our Closest Friends Will Be . . .

To the Senior class:

We entered as "green" Freshmen, unknown to the upper classmen, to the faculty and staff, and to each other. We have finally reached the height of college achievement—graduation! We have experienced many "all nighters," T. P. raids and water-balloon fights. We shared many frustrations, tears, and joys.

We've been told that the closest and dearest friends will be our college buddies—let's live up to that thought.

We entered together and we leave together. Remember Skip Day! Remember the tears and lessons experienced. Continue to press on to the goal to win the prize of God's high calling through Jesus Christ our Lord!

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness
